This erotic/LGBT romance short story series is intended for mature audiences only, 18+. Garnet Delaware is one of LAs best DJs, although her fight to the top has been far from easy. Life was tough after leaving home at sixteen, but shes shed sweat and tears to earn the respect of the music industry and is now content in the arms of her girlfriend, Lena. When Garnet is offered the opportunity of a lifetime performing at music festivals around the country in her breakout tour she cant wait to take the next step. However, shes not looking forward to leaving Lena behind, even if the separation is only temporary. NFL bad boy Wesley Black has disgraced himself, throwing away his football career. Now he is determined to get back on track to prove he has his life under control. And despite the fact that his dreams have been flushed down the toilet, he wants to redeem himself by helping Garnet achieve hers. But his desire for Garnet grows, so when the tour that he is managing ends, Wes isnt ready to let her slip away so easily. Plans are not always set in stone. An unexpected turn almost ruins Garnets career, and the person she most despises wants to help her find her way back. Turns out, the truth has a way of unlocking secrets that can either make Garnet stronger or destroy everything shes worked so hard to build. Caution: This short story contains explicit sex scenes and language.
