

Lady Harriets Lover

This is a historical erotic short story (word count 4,626). Harriet cannot believe her good fortune when she inherits a large estate from her late uncle, and despite the remoteness of her new home she cannot think of living anywhere else. She thought she had wanted for nothing at that point, until the rugged, handsome Mr Duncan Smith literally comes thrusting into her life as he applies for a job as her steward. It is not long before Harriet is fully prepared to give herself completely to Duncan and allow her dashing steward to show her all the sensual pleasures that she has been missing!
