

Ready, Willing and Abel (Passion in Paradise: The Men of the McKinnon Sisters)

Patience McKinnon has never even tried to live up to her unfortunate name. Her sisters would gladly point out that she's impetuous, fickle, and stubborn to a fault. History has taught her that she's the only one, besides those crazy sisters, that has her best interests at heart...and she's not about to let down her guard and let herself get hurt. She did that once...and that was more than enough. Next time, she's fairly certain that she'd rather just shoot first and ask questions later, thank you very much! Enter Abel Turner. The suave town attorney has had Patience McKinnon in his sights for years. Sure, he's sown his wild oats along the way, but he always knew he'd come back to the beautiful blonde bartender that fills his dreams and drives him crazy at the same time. After all, he owes her...and he plans to rectify the bad impression he made in the past with a humdinger of a sensual night. But that one night may just change both of their worlds...forever. Will Patience overcome her insecurities? And will Abel ever convince her to trust him again? Join the entire town of Paradise and the intrepid McKinnon sisters in this humorous and poignant erotica romance! Standalone.
