My Best White Friend

Whats a little color between girlfriends? Natalie and Sarah have been best friends forever and at each others side through good times, bad high school hair and and ugly relationships. They parted ways after law school when Natalie went to work in New York for a corporate law firm and Sarah stayed in Philadelphia to work in the small firm started by their mothers. When Natalies mother dies suddenly she moves back home to Philadelphia to grieve and to work with Sarah. At first it seems Natalie and Sarah will become their mothers, fearlessly and tirelessly crusading together on the behalf of their indigent clients. But then a man comes along. Ian Williams is no stranger to Natalie and their complex past forces her to keep her secrets buried deep. Meanwhile, Sarah falls hard and fast for Ian and cant fathom why her best friend cant just be happy for her. Is it because Ian is black? Natalie swears its not that simple. As tensions flare, the two friends are left to wonder whether their friendship is genuine enough to withstand this test.
